Our Experience

We specialise in arranging Professional indemnity insurance for the Engineering and Geo tech industries right around Australia. Our team is made up of qualified and experienced individuals, some who have in excess of 30 years working in the insurance industry.

Cost Savings

Not only will you receive quality service and professional advice, but we will also achieve significant premium savings for you, whilst still being mindful not to compromise the integrity of your Insurance coverage.

In Addition

We can also take care of all of your other insurance requirements including Vehicles, Plant and Equipment (including Soil testing rigs) and Business insurance, including Public Liability Insurance.

Why CIA?

- Comprehensive protection (we will ensure you have no gaps in your insurance cover)
- Premium funding facility (allows you to spread the cost of your annual premium over 10 months)
- The security of one of Australia's leading PI insurers
- Help and assistance on claims

Here's what clients are saying about the team at CIA

"CIA have been acting as insurance brokers for the past 10 years, I have always found dealing with them to be a positive experience. Nothing ever seems to be too much trouble and I am made to feel unique, never feeling that I am just one of the many clients that you and your office have to deal with each day. They always place our interests first and take the time to understand our business."

It is a pleasure to deal with them and I am happy to recommend CIA to any other business."

David Hansford, Managing Director
Structural Works Pty Ltd

"CIA have acted as our Insurance broker for many years and during this time they have always provided the highest level of service and advice at all times, as well as providing very competitive pricing. CIA always takes the time to understand our needs and expectations and operate in a very professional manner in all instances. I would have no hesitation in recommending them to any other company."

Nick Schofield, Director
Black Geotechnical Pty Ltd

I am very pleased to provide this testimonial... I thought I had a good deal until CIA approached me with an even better deal with the same range of coverage.

Friendly staff and no mucking around. I have no hesitation in recommending them to any other company.

Andrew Sandford, Director
Bayside & Suburbs Geotechnical Services
